Danni's Dream House

My dream house meets Danni, a student. She designs houses and furniture on her computer.

I use a computer program to design houses – just for fun! This is my dream house: I have a big house next to the sea. It's not real. My house has got five bedrooms. I like changing the colours of the rooms on the computer!

The living room's really cool. The windows are big and you can see the beach. Everything in the room's pink or white. There's a pink carpet, and on the wall there's a great sound system. Next to the window there are shelves with books on them. I haven't got any more furniture or any plants.

1 Read the text. True or false?

A Um... this one?
B Great. Now you write what you are doing now.
A OK: I am... twittering.... for ...the.... first.... time.
B Cool! Now you can look for other people.
A Can I find you?
B Yes! Type 'Sarah Jones 2009'
A There you are! Nice picture!
B Thanks. Finally, you can twitter on your mobile phone!
A Thanks Sarah!
B No problem.

Test 9

- A What shall we do in Rome tomorrow, Harry?
B I don't know.
A Why don't we go to the Spanish steps?
B Mmm!
A There are lots of brilliant shops there. Shall we go clothes shopping?
B Mum, that's boring!
A Oh! Well, we could go to the Vatican and St Peter's church.
B Yes, but it isn't very exciting.
A Harry! What do you want to do?
B Well, there's football on. Let's go to the Olympic stadium and watch the game.
A Harry, we're going to be in Rome for one day only. We are not going to watch the football.
B OK, I know. Let's go to the Coliseum. That's exciting!
A Yes. What a great idea!

Term Test 3

- A This week Traveller's Tales meets two young travellers Tom Vincent and Dave Barden. They flew to Greece and went to Turkey. We met them in Istanbul. They are going to travel by train back to London. We asked Dave about their trip.
B So, how is the trip going?
C It's cool.
B Was it interesting in Greece?
C Yes very interesting.
B Where did you go?
C We visited Athens.
B Did you like it?
C It was OK. But it was very hot.
B You and Tom are together a lot. Are you still good friends?
C Yes, but I've got one rule for him: don't disturb me when I'm sleeping! I like my sleep.
B What about Tom?
C He has got one rule for me: don't take my CDs!
